Delegates are responsible for making their own reservations and are advised to make sure that their reservation has been processed by the hotel and to request a confirmation number or code.

A credit card number is required to make the reservation. Hotels in Mexico apply a “no show” policy, whereby visitors may cancel reservations up to 48 hours before they are due to check in, failing which they will be charged for the first night. All delegates must settle their own hotel bill at the end of their stay.

6. Entry requirements for Mexico

To enter Mexico, participants must complete all immigration procedures. All foreign citizens must be in possession of a valid passport.

Participants may require a visa to enter Mexico, depending on the type of passport they hold and their country of origin, among other factors, as detailed below.

Visitors must be advised that Mexico will not issue visas at ports of entry under any circumstances.

Visa-free entry

Non-Mexican nationals in possession of a passport and one of the following documents do not require a visa to enter Mexico:

I. A valid, multiple-entry visa for Canada, Japan, the United States or the United Kingdom, or any of the countries of the Schengen area.

II. A document certifying permanent residence in Canada, Japan, the United States or the United Kingdom, any country of the Schengen area, or any member country of the Pacific Alliance.

III. A valid APEC Business Travel Card (ABTC) approved by Mexico.

Immigration officials may ask foreign visitors to Mexico for the following upon entry:

I. Valid passport or identification document.

II. Personal information requested by immigration authorities.

III. The reason for travel. This information must be consistent with the visa issued, where applicable. If travelling as a tourist, you may be requested to provide proof of financial solvency and a hotel reservation (preferably paid). You may also be asked to show proof of your place of residence and origin.

IV. Address in Mexico and length of stay. It is important to be able to show a return ticket to the country of origin and a hotel reservation consistent with your stay in the country.
V. Information concerning the activities to be carried out in Mexico and those undertaken in the country of origin.

VI. Proof of financial solvency for the period of stay in Mexico. It is strongly recommended to carry an international credit card.

Visitors must retain the migration form stamped by the immigration officer upon entry to Mexico as it must be submitted upon departure from the country.

Holders of diplomatic, official or service passports

To check whether you require a visa to enter Mexico, please consult the information at the following link:

If you do require a visa, please contact your nearest Mexican Consulate.

Holders of ordinary passports

To check whether you require a visa to enter Mexico, please consult the information at the following link

Requirements for applications for a visitor’s visa without permission to engage in paid activities

To obtain a Mexican visa in your ordinary passport you must present the following:

I. Original and copy of a valid passport or identification document.

II. One colour passport-size photo, not less than 32 mm x 26 mm and not more than 39 mm x 31 mm in size, displaying your face, without glasses, against a white background.

III. Original and copy of documents proving legal residence, if the applicant is not a national of the country where the visa is requested.

IV. The following documents, as applicable, in order to certify that the foreign visitor will not engage in paid activities while in Mexico:

A. Evidence of ties:
   1. Originals and copies of duly registered property deeds under the name of the applicant with at least two years of ownership and proof of stable employment with at least two years of service, or
   2. Originals and copies of duly registered property deeds under the name of the applicant with at least two years of ownership and a document attesting the ownership of or a stake in businesses issued by the relevant authorities of the respective country, with a minimum standing of two years.

B. Financial solvency:
   1. Originals and copies of documents attesting that the applicant has received a salary or pension providing monthly after-tax income of at least the equivalent of 100 days of the general minimum wage in force in Mexico City for the past three months and proof of stable employment with at least one year of service, or
2. Originals and copies of documents attesting that the applicant has held investments or bank accounts with an average monthly balance equivalent to 300 days of the general minimum wage in force in Mexico City for the past three months.

C. Invitation from an organization or public or private institution:

1. Original letter from an organization or public or private institution inviting the applicant to participate in an event or unpaid activity in Mexico. The letter must contain the following information:
   (a) Full name and nationality of the applicant.
   (b) Name or trade name of the organization.
   (c) Official registration number, if applicable.
   (d) Activity or objective of the organization or institution.
   (e) Full address and contact information of the organization or institution.
   (f) Information on the event or activity in which the applicant will participate. The activity to be carried out by the applicant must be related to the objectives of the organization or institution issuing the invitation.
   (g) Estimated duration or approximate date of conclusion of the activity to be carried out.
   (h) A commitment to assume responsibility for the applicant’s subsistence during his or her stay in Mexico and for his or her return journey to the country of origin or residence.
   (i) Copy of official identification document, with signature and photograph, of the signatory to the letter of responsibility.

2. In order to prove that the organization or public or private institution has sufficient financial resources to fulfil the commitment referred to in point 1(h), it must furnish originals and copies of documents attesting that it has held investments or bank accounts with an average balance of at least the equivalent of 1,000 days of the general minimum wage in force in Mexico City for the past 12 months.

3. The applicant must furnish originals and copies of documents attesting that he or she has the experience, expertise, skills or knowledge necessary to carry out the activity covered by the invitation.

D. Participation in an event promoted or sponsored by the federal government or an autonomous constitutional body:

1. Original letter from the federal government department or autonomous constitutional body inviting the applicant to participate in an event organized in accordance with an international commitment undertaken by the Government of Mexico. The letter must contain the following information:
   (a) Full name of the applicant.
   (b) Nationality.
   (c) Name of the federal government department or the autonomous constitutional body.
   (d) Information on the event in which the applicant will participate.
   (e) Date and duration of the event.
   (f) Signature and official title of the federal government official or staff member of the autonomous constitutional body responsible for coordinating the event.
2. Original of the letter or note from the institution sending the applicant in the country of origin.

7. Local transport

Participants are responsible for their own transportation between the airport and the hotel.

8. Online and on-site registration of participants

An online registration system will be available on the meeting website (http://foroalc2030.cepal.org/2017/en) from 6 February onwards.

Registration of participants will begin on Monday, 24 April at 10 a.m., on the ground floor of the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs. Participants will be issued identification badges, which, for security reasons, must be shown at all meetings.

For any questions on registration, please contact Paula Warnken (paula.warnken@cepal.org, (+56) 2 2210 2651).

Online registration does not exempt delegations from the requirement to provide official notification to the Office of the Secretary of the Commission indicating the name of the head of delegation and all accompanying delegation members.

9. Internet

The offices and rooms set aside for the session will have wireless Internet access (Wi-Fi).

10. Languages

The official language of the session will be Spanish. Simultaneous interpretation into English will be provided.

11. Documents

The meeting documents will be posted on the meeting website (http://foroalc2030.cepal.org/2017/en) as they become available.
12. Medical services

The Government of Mexico will provide first aid services in case emergency medical assistance is required at the session venue. Any major medical expenses must be paid by the person concerned. Participants are advised to purchase international health insurance to cover major medical expenses.

13. International press centre

An international press centre will be set up in order to facilitate press coverage of the first meeting of the Forum of the Countries of Latin America and the Caribbean on Sustainable Development. Journalists wishing to cover the meeting must register online in advance at http://foroalc2030.cepal.org/2017/es and obtain accreditation with the press centre, which will be located in the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs and will be open on a daily basis from 9 a.m. onwards.

Questions relating to media coverage of the meeting may be addressed to Guido Camu, Officer in Charge of the Public Information Unit of ECLAC (email: guido.camu@cepal.org, tel (+56) 2 2210 2440).
