FIFTH MEETING OF THE FORUM OF THE COUNTRIES OF LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

San José, Costa Rica
7–9 March, 2022

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS
1. Introduction

The fifth meeting of the Forum of the Countries of Latin America and the Caribbean on Sustainable Development will be held in-person from 7 to 9 March 2022 at the Crowne Plaza San José Corobici, Costa Rica, under the chairship of Costa Rica.

The 33 States members of the Forum of the Countries of Latin America and the Caribbean on Sustainable Development and associate members of ECLAC are welcome to attend the fifth meeting of the Forum in person. Government representatives and other stakeholders who are unable to travel to Costa Rica may attend virtually via Zoom and will receive the link once they have completed online registration, as indicated in section 2 below.

To safeguard the health of all and in compliance with recommended occupancy amid the COVID-19 pandemic, we suggest the following composition of delegations in the conference room: heads of delegation plus two accompanying persons from member States and associate members; one representative plus one accompanying person from agencies, funds and programmes of the United Nations system; and the head of delegation of intergovernmental organizations. Seating will also be reserved for United Nations resident coordinators and panellists appearing in the official programme of the Forum.

This note is intended to provide participants with administrative, logistical and other relevant information related to the meeting.

Details of the fifth meeting of the Forum

- Host: ECLAC and the Government of Costa Rica
- Venue: Crowne Plaza San José Corobici, Costa Rica
  Address: Sabana Norte contiguo al Parque Metropolitano La Sabana, San José, 10108 Costa Rica
- Date: 7–9 March, 2022
- Format: Hybrid (in-person and virtual)
- Languages: English, French and Spanish. Sign-language interpretation will also be provided.

2. Online registration (for in-person and virtual attendance)

An online registration system will be available on the ECLAC website (https://eventos.cepal.org/event/66/registrations/).

All representatives and participants must register in advance of the meeting, between 8 February and 6 March 2022.

For further information on accreditation, please contact María Eugenia Barozzi (mariaeugenia.barozzi@cepal.org, (+56) 2 2210 2520).

Online registration does not exempt participants from the requirement to send an official note to the Secretary of the Commission (secretariaforoalc2030@cepal.org) indicating the names of the head of delegation and accompanying members.
3. Distribution of identification badges (only in-person participants)

Participants attending in person must collect their identification badges in the foyer of the Chirripó-Tobosi Room at the hotel. For security purposes, the identification badge provided must be kept visible and shown at all meetings. Badges will be issued only to participants who completed online registration by 3 p.m. (Costa Rica time, GMT-6) on 6 March 2022.

Badges can be picked up at the reception desk at the venue between 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Sunday, 6 March, or from 7 a.m. (Costa Rica time) on the day of the meeting.

4. Meeting documents and paperless meeting

As part of the United Nations efforts to reduce paper usage, no printed meeting documents will be provided. Participants attending in person may bring their own copies of the meeting documents circulated by the secretariat and published on the website of the Forum (https://foroalc2030.cepal.org/2022/en) or use electronic versions. Participants will have free access to wireless Internet during the meetings, through which they can download or consult meeting documents.

All official documents will be available on the website https://foroalc2030.cepal.org/2022/en. Participants are advised to bring their own laptops, tablets or mobile devices.

5. Remote participation and streaming

The fifth meeting of the Forum of the Countries of Latin America and the Caribbean on Sustainable Development will be streamed live on the ECLAC website.

Live streaming will be made available in due course through a link on the official Forum website to facilitate remote participation. Speakers will be provided with the link to the meeting platform, and will receive via email a document containing guidelines for the meeting.

The hotel requires a credit card number to hold a reservation. Hotels in Costa Rica apply a no-show policy, whereby reservations may be cancelled up to 48 hours prior to expected arrival; otherwise, cardholders will be charged for the first night. All delegates must settle their own hotel bill at the end of their stay.
9. Entry requirements for Costa Rica

9.1. Diplomatic and official visas

On the basis of Executive Decree No. 30304 on regulations for the granting of diplomatic and official visas, applications must be submitted to the Diplomatic Department of the Foreign Service Directorate in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Worship of Costa Rica at least eight (8) days prior to the expected date of arrival in Costa Rica.

These visas are issued exclusively for official visits and are not applicable to tourist travel.

9.2. Requirements

- Formal request indicating the type of passport, start and end date of the stay in the country, accompanied by the invitation to the Forum of the Countries of Latin America and the Caribbean on Sustainable Development from the competent Costa Rican institution or the duly accredited international organization in Costa Rica. Applications must be addressed to Ms. Bernardina Vargas, Head of the Diplomatic Department, by email to bvargas@rree.go.cr and azuniga@rree.go.cr.

- Copy of the passport, which must be valid for six months from the date of entry.

- Copy of ticket issued by the airline.

- Note Verbale from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the officials' country of origin requesting the granting of a diplomatic/official visa and indicating the names, type and passport number of the members of the delegation participating in the Forum of the Countries of Latin America and the Caribbean on Sustainable Development.

- Proof of vaccination against yellow fever. The original medical certificate must be shown on entry to Costa Rica by participants travelling from or transiting via the following countries: Brazil, Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Plurinational State of Bolivia, Trinidad and Tobago, and any African countries.

9.3. Visa waiver agreements

Costa Rica has signed visa waiver agreements under which the holders of diplomatic, official and service passports from some countries do not require visas to enter Costa Rica. The countries of Latin America and the Caribbean concerned are listed below:

- Argentine Republic
- Barbados
- Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela
- Dominican Republic
- Federative Republic of Brazil
- Plurinational State of Bolivia
- Republic of Cuba
- Republic of Chile
- Republic of Colombia
- Republic of Ecuador
- Republic of El Salvador
- Republic of Honduras
- Republic of Nicaragua
- Republic of Panama
- Republic of Paraguay
- Republic of Peru
- United Mexican States
9.4. Health provisions governing entry

The Ministry of Health of Costa Rica requires that all visitors complete the Health Pass, a digital form available at https://salud.go.cr/.

Proof of full vaccination with the Pfizer, Moderna, AstraZeneca or Johnson & Johnson vaccines must be attached, failing which proof of valid insurance that guarantees coverage for COVID-19 expenses for the length of the stay must be provided. Consult the Ministry of Health of the Republic of Costa Rica for any further information on these formalities.

Yellow fever vaccine:

The regulations in force governing the yellow fever vaccination requirement for entry into Costa Rica territory can be consulted in the documents below (in Spanish):

Decreto ejecutivo No. 39997-S-G-SP-RE: Regulaciones sobre el Certificado Internacional de Vacunación contra la Fiebre Amarilla

Geographic areas

9.5. Exemption from import duties

Requests to waive import duties on equipment and materials must be made by the relevant United Nations entity via the Exonet platform, in accordance with the established guidelines.

Embassies may apply for waivers for their respective delegations, if required.

9.6. Departure tax exemption

Only private flights are exempt from departure taxes. However, Offices of Resident Coordinators or Embassies may formally request a waiver from the Department of Immunities and Privileges by means of a formal note indicating the name, passport number, type of passport and date of birth of each individual for whom an exemption is required, with a copy of each person's passport data page attached. This must be done at least 48 hours before the departing flight.

10. COVID-19 measures at the venue

10.1. Sanitization measures at the venue

- On entry: temperature check
- Registration desk: identity check
- Room access: record of attendance
- Physical distancing: participants seated at requisite distance in meeting rooms

Any participant considered a suspected COVID-19 case will be transferred to a temporary isolation room.

10.2. Physical distancing guidelines in Costa Rica, subject to change as required.

All participants must comply with Costa Rica's COVID-19 quarantine guidelines while in the country. For further information, please visit https://www.ministeriodesalud.go.cr/sobre_ministerio/prensa/docs/ls_vs_006_ingreso_pasajeros_4_nov_2021.pdf.
